Study Abroad in Italy
Gero 493: Longevity and Death among Ancient and Modern European Populations
May 16 – June 3
Cities Include: Milan, Bolzano, Florence, Volterra, Rome

OVERVIEW
We will travel through Italy and explore the role of religion and culture in determining and defining death practices, ceremonies, and other customs. Class discussions and field trips will demonstrate the strong connection between religious and afterlife beliefs and body disposal practices.

Price: $2,000 (plus tuition & airfare) includes all lodging, breakfasts, and intra country transportation.
