Research Support

ACTIVE

USC ADRD Resource Center for Minority Aging Research (USC ADRD-RCMAR)

P30AG043073 (PIs: Zissimopoulos, Ailshire, Aguila) 07/2023 – 06/2023

National Institute on Aging

The major goal is to support high quality research careers for emerging scholars conducting research on the health and economic challenges of minority aging.

A Next Generation Data Infrastructure to Understand Disparities across the Life Course

1R01AG077280 (PI: Kapteyn) 07/2023 – 06/2028

National Institute on Aging

The major goals are to (1) use state-of-the-art technology and methods to enhance an existing social science infrastructure and provide the research community with a new advanced tool for the collection, dissemination, and analysis of uniquely comprehensive, valid population data; (2) optimize the infrastructure for addressing scientific challenges related to disparities in health, income, and wealth.

Gerontology Enriching MSTEM (GEMSTEM) to Enhance Diversity in Aging

R25AG076400 (MPI: Ailshire, Curran and Walsh) 04/01/2022 – 03/31/2027

National Institute on Aging

The primary objective of GEMSTEM is to advance diversity in aging research and health disparities research in aging by providing early access to research, providing individual mentorship opportunities, personalized academic and career advice, and establishing an enriched community of peer scholars to pipeline into future careers in gerontology.

Integrating Information about Aging Surveys: Novel integration of contextual data to study late-life cognition and Alzheimer’s Disease and Related Dementia and Dementia care

R01AG030153 (MPI: Lee, Adar, Gross) 04/01/2022 – 03/31/2027

National Institute on Aging

We aim to bring in newly available data on late-life cognition and dementia, together with core longitudinal interviews, self-completion questionnaire, Life-History interviews, End-of-Life interviews, and the special COVID-19 surveys and to integrate contextual data, specifically, air pollution exposures, institutional and policy measures related to long-term care and the COVID-19 pandemic.

USC/UCLA Center on Biodemography and Population Health

P30AG017265 (MPI: Crimmins, Seeman, Cole, Ailshire)

07/01/2020 – 06/30/2025

National Institute on Aging

The primary purpose of CBPH is to provide a synergistic research environment for the integration and translation of research findings from a variety of disciplines such as epidemiology, clinical geriatrics, biostatistics, and biology into their effects on the health status of populations and the expected life cycles of individuals.

USC/UCLA Center on Biodemography and Population Health: Enhanced Contextual Data Resource (CDR) for Understanding the AD/ADRD Exposome

P30AG017265 – 21 Supplement (MPIs: Ailshire and Crimmins)

08/01/2022 – 06/30/2025

National Institute on Aging

This is a supplement to create an Enhanced Contextual Data Resource (CDR) with exposome exposures that can be linked to longitudinal studies of aging to support research in the role of the exposome in AD/ADRD outcomes.

State and Local Educational Contexts of Older U.S. Adults and Their Association with Cognitive Impairment and Dementia

R01AG067536 (PIs: Walsemann)

07/01/2020 – 06/30/2025

National Institute on Aging

The major goal of this project is to determine if education operates differently to reduce risk for Alzheimer's disease and related dementias (ADRD) when it is attained under more (or less) advantaged educational context among Black and White older adults.

Center for Advancing Sociodemographic and Economic Study of Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias (CeASES-ADRD)

P30AG066589 (PIs: Zissimopoulos, Battacharya, Goldman, Hayward)

04/01/2020 – 03/31/2025

National Institute on Aging

The mission of the Center for Advancing Sociodemographic and Economic Study of Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias (CeASES-ADRD) is to advance innovative social science ADRD research, to increase knowledge and technical capability of social science researchers, to broaden and diversify the set of researchers working in the field and, to disseminate resources and communicate findings for impact.

Network on Life Course Health Dynamics and Disparities in 21st Century America (NLCHDD)

R24AG045061 (PIs: Ailshire, Burgard, Hummer, Karas-Montez)

09/01/2019 – 08/31/2024

National Institute on Aging

This Network will bring together scientists across disciplines to collectively investigate the U.S. crisis, provide training for Network scientists, and disseminate Network-generated resources and research to inform decision-makers and the public on how to improve aging over the adult life course.

Multidisciplinary Research Training in Gerontology

T32AG00037 (PIs: Crimmins, Mather, Ailshire)

05/01/2003 – 04/30/2024

National Institute on Aging

The major goal is to support predoctoral and postdoctoral research training in gerontology.

The Importance of the Neighborhood Environment in Determining Health and Well-being among Persons with Dementia and their Caregivers

R01AG064491 (PI: Ailshire)

07/15/2019 – 02/29/2024

National Institute on Aging

The proposed project examines the importance of neighborhood-based supports and stressors in the health and well-being of people with dementia and their caregivers.

State Desegregation Efforts and Black-White Disparities in Dementia

AARG-NTF-20-684252 (PI: Walsemann)

05/01/2020 – 4/30/2024

Alzheimer's Association

The major goal of this project is to determine if state-level school desegregation efforts in the US South explain Black-White disparities in dementia and impairment prevalence and if this varies by when primary school was completed (pre, concurrent, or post Brown vs. Board of Education).

PENDING

Multidisciplinary Research Training in Gerontology

T32AG00037 (MPI: Ailshire, Crimmins, Mather)

05/01/2003 – 04/30/2024

National Institute on Aging

The major goal is to support predoctoral and postdoctoral research training in gerontology.

The Health and Retirement Study, Years 35-40

U01AG009740 (MPI: Weir, Langa; USC PI: Ailshire)

03/01/2024- 12/31/2029

National Institute on Aging

This competing continuation proposal for Years 35-40 of the Health and Retirement Study (HRS) cooperative agreement, including the Harmonized Cognitive Assessment Protocol (HCAP) sub-study, aims to design, collect and distribute longitudinal multi-disciplinary data to support research on aging, Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias (ADRD), and the health and well-being of the older population.

COMPLETED

USC Resource Center for Minority Aging Research (USC-RCMAR)

P30AG043073 (MPI: Goldman and Zissimopoulos)

07/01/2018 – 06/30/2023

National Institute on Aging

The major goal of this center is to support high quality research careers for emerging scholars conducting research on the health and economic challenges of minority aging.

Integrating Information about Aging Surveys

R01AG039528 (PI: Lee)

07/01/2017 – 06/30/2022

National Institute on Aging

The purpose of this award is to create harmonized aging data in the HRS family of studies to facilitate cross-national comparisons of aging populations.

Synergistic Effects of Neighborhood Social Stressors and Outdoor Fine Particulate Matter Air Pollution on Cognitive Decline and Incident Dementia

R03AG061741 (PI: Ailshire)

09/01/2019 – 08/31/2021

National Institute on Aging

The objective of this project is to determine if exposure to neighborhood stressors exacerbates the adverse effects of air pollution on risk of cognitive decline and onset of dementia.

Life-course Sociogenomic Analysis of Social Inequities in Aging

Award: 1810-08987 (PI: Belsky)

04/01/2019 – 03/31/2021

Russell Sage Foundation

The aim of this award is to determine how life-course socioeconomic disadvantage accelerates the biological process of aging. Dr. Ailshire will collaborate on analyses using measures from the database she developed of ecological-level social and physical environment exposures that may affect the aging process.

Understanding America Study - Administrative Supplement

3U01AG054580-03S2 (PI: Kapteyn)

9/15/2019 – 6/30/2020

National Institute on Aging

The goal of this award is to develop and link contextual data with the Understanding America Study panel.

ADRD-Focused Administrative Supplement

R01AG055481 (PI: Karas-Montez; Subaward PI: Ailshire)

09/01/2018 – 08/31/2019

National Institute on Aging

The purpose of this award is to determine the degree of geographic variation in the association between education and prevalence of dementia and cognitive impairment with no dementia (CIND), how these associations change over time, and whether state-level education policy explains regional variation in dementia and CIND prevalence and trends.

Local Contextual Data Resources for Aging Research - Pilot

Network on Life Course Health Dynamics and Disparities in 21st Century America

(PI: Ailshire)

01/01/2019 – 06/30/2019

This proposed project aims to address the lack of availability and awareness of local-level contextual data by compiling a catalogue of local-level contextual data resources that are currently, or could be, linked with NIA funded studies, and enhancing an existing contextual data resource by adding additional years of measures of several local area characteristics.

2017 Greater Los Angeles Homeless Count

Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority

11/01/2016 – 06/30/2017

(Co-PI: Ailshire)

USC is responsible for: 1) conducting the Demographic Survey to accompany the 2017 Homeless Count; 2) assist in the coordination of the 2017 Homeless Count; and 3) conduct all statistical analysis for the 2017 Homeless Count.

Neighborhood Context, Social Relationships, and Health: Examining the Pathways

R00AG039528 (PI: Ailshire)

5/01/2012 – 4/30/2017

National Institute on Aging

The purpose of this award is to obtain additional training in biological systems and psychophysiology and to incorporate this training into research elucidating the psychosocial and physiological pathways linking neighborhoods to health and aging among older and middle-aged adults.

Racial and Health Disparities from Aging in Changing Places

Network on Life Course Health Dynamics and Disparities in 21st Century America

(Co-PI with Michael Bader)

07/01/2014 – 06/30/2015

The purpose of this Pilot Project is to identify how neighborhood change affects racial health disparities among elders in the United States. We will test the hypothesis that differences in the neighborhood conditions to which Whites, Blacks, and Latinos have been exposed throughout the life course help to explain racial health disparities in cardiovascular disease and mortality.

Economic Conditions and Social Disparities in Biological Risk among US Adults

USC/UCLA Center on Biodemography and Population Health 07/01/2014 – 06/30/2015
(Co-PI with Brian Finch and Sharon Merkin)

The purpose of this Pilot Project is to determine if exposure to adverse local economic conditions, including economic decline, is related to biological risk in U.S. adults, and if differential exposures explain race/ethnic and socioeconomic disparities in cumulative biological risk.

Unequal Environments and Social Disparities in Hypertension and Diabetes - Pilot

Resource Center for Minority Aging Research (RCMAR) 07/01/2014 – 06/30/2015
(PI: Ailshire)

The purpose of the proposed project is to determine if stressors and resources in the residential environment account for the large racial and ethnic differences that have been observed in hypertension and diabetes prevalence, treatment, and control in older US adults.

Adding Contextual Data to the HRS

R21AG045625 (PI: Ailshire) 09/01/2013 – 06/30/2015
National Institute on Aging

This project aims to develop the Health and Retirement Study (HRS) Contextual Data Resource (HRS-CDR), which contains an extensive set of contextual measures encompassing social, economic, environmental, health care and built environment characteristics. These measures are obtained at multiple geographies and over time.

Residential Tenure and Mobility among Older Adults in the HRS

USC Dornsife Population Research Center 01/01/2014 – 12/31/2014
(PI: Ailshire)

The purpose of this project is to examine residential mobility patterns in older US adults using data from the Health and Retirement Study.

Unequal Environments and Race/Ethnic Disparities in Hypertension

USC Leonard Davis School of Gerontology - Hanson Thorell 06/16/2014 – 06/15/2014
(PI: Ailshire)

The purpose of the proposed research is to determine if neighborhood stressors and resources account for the persistent racial and ethnic differences that have been observed in hypertension among older adults.

Air Pollution and Cognition among Older Adults

NIH/NCMHD National Institutes of Health Loan Repayment Program in Health Disparities Research (Role: Scholar) 08/2010 – 07/2012

This project examined the unequal social distribution of exposure to ambient air pollution among older U.S. adults and the effects of air pollution exposure on their cognitive performance and decline.

Neighborhood Determinants of Well Being and Quality of Life in Older Adults

Regula A. Herzog Young Investigators Award 04/01/2009 – 03/31/2010
Survey Research Center, University of Michigan

This project examined the neighborhood determinants of social engagement and health among older, community-dwelling adults, with particular emphasis on the effects of the neighborhood social environment.

Spatial Dynamics of the Local Food and Recreation Environment: An Examination of Measurement and Effects of the Neighborhood Built Environment

RWJF Health and Society Scholars Program

2007 – 2008

University of Michigan

This project investigated methodological components of data collection and measurement of the neighborhood food and recreation environment as well as examines the effect of that environment on individual obesity, and its antecedents, using a community survey and secondary data in the city of Chicago. It explored spatial sampling and measurement strategies to cost-effectively capture the greatest amount of information about the neighborhood food and recreation environment.
