

AIDS Quilt Memorial and Life Celebration

a university-wide social justice and health equity event

World AIDS Day

Friday, Dec. 1, 2023

10am - 3pm, Program at 12pm

McCarthy Quad – USC Campus

Join us for a university community event to honor World AIDS Day. Speakers, live performances and display of panels from the original AIDS Memorial Quilt. Learn about the latest AIDS/HIV health resources, research and advocacy.

Guest Performers

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles
Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence

Free HIV and STD testing provided by AIDS Healthcare Foundation

Guest Speakers

Cheryl Barrit
Executive Director
Los Angeles County Commission on HIV

Sara Schwartz
Board Member, National AIDS Memorial
USC Social Work Professor

And More Special Guests!

USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck
School of Social Work

The AIDS Memorial Quilt is the largest piece of community folk art in the world.

USC Leonard Davis
School of Gerontology

USC Libraries

USC Institute on Inequalities in Global Health

USC Price

Sol Price School of Public Policy